United Is Denied Request For Loan Guarantees

A federal loan board rejected United Airlines' application for $1.6 billion in federal loan guarantees, saying that it thought the airline could survive on its own without government help. United, the nation's second-largest airline, was not expected to have any cut on travelers or the airline's plans for emerging from its heavily on winning the and the board's decision was [Page A1.]

to Buy TXU Unit

Atmos Energy said that it had agreed to acquire the natural gas operations of TXU for $1.93 billion. The deal would create one of the nation's largest gas producers of natural gas. The purchase would substantially enlarge Atmos's business in Texas, giving it control of gas pipelines in the state and customers in north Texas. The deal is based in Dallas. [C5.]

Seeks Change of Court

In a surprise maneuver, Richard A. Grasso, former chairman of the New York Stock Exchange, has asked that the suit over his pay be moved from state to federal court. [C3.]
